

TERRY WEBSTER

Terry has been rockin' since 1957 when he formed the Jack O' Diamonds Skiffle group. After teaming up with his sister they became known as PATTI BROOK and The DIAMONDS They appeared on TV's CAROLL LEVIS DISCOVERIES and won DISC Music paper's VOCAL GROUP OF THE YEAR 1960. They toured nationwide with EMILE FORD and The CHECKMATES and THE SHADOWS.

In 1962 Terry was bass guitarist and backing vocalist for Ex Shadow JET HARRIS and the JETBLACKS, singing with Jet on the hit "SOME PEOPLE". They toured with LITTLE RICHARD, SAM COOK, GENE VINCENT and DEL SHANNON. After leaving Jet Harris, Terry and THE JETBLACKS toured Germany and UK dance venues including the famous CAVERN CLUB and appeared at THE ROYAL ALBERT HALL supporting DUSTY SPRINGFIELD and THE ROLLING STONES.

In 1964 Terry was bass guitarist and vocalist for a London based R n B band with gigs at THE MARQUEE and 100 CLUB Oxford St. He made two singles with EMI COLUMBIA renamed TONY BROOK & THE BREAKERS appearing on ITV's "THANK YOUR LUCKY STARS" with his own R n B composition "MEANI GENIE".

Turning to comedy impressions in the late 60's he became frontman with the ROCKIN BERRIES from 1970 to '76 with many TV appearances, a national tour with SACHA DISTEL, OLIVIA NEWTON JOHN and STEPHANE GRAPPELLI followed by two seasons at The LONDON PALLADIUM. Supporting TOM JONES and FRANKIE VAUGHEN.

After a 10 year spell as a solo artiste he re-joined the ROCKIN BERRIES from 1986 to 1996. He then began providing vocals and record productions from his own studio for many JIVE BUNNY albums particularly their popular CHRISTMAS albums.

Terry's unique one man show whisks you through those golden decades of hit songs with plenty of laughs along the way.
